JUDGING

Judging of the nominations will use a 100-point scale, of which 35 points will be allocated to service activities and 65 points to the candidate's career achievements. All subcommittee members will judge each nomination using this 100-point scale unless there is a conflict of interest in which case a subcommittee member may abstain from judging a particular nomination.

NOMINATION PACKET

In addition to this completed nomination form, the nominator should include no more than four pages. The first page being an abbreviated resume of the candidate to include date of birth, educational background, positions held, and other information describing the candidate. The second page to describe the most significant career achievements of the candidate; the quality of these achievements is more important than the quantity. The third page to describe the candidate's service to the profession; separate sections may describe service to TMS as distinct from other service activities. The fourth page to provide brief testimonials relating to the candidate's achievements and service to the profession.
